#5 Listen, Learn, Apply, Teach and Be Duplicable

Listen to successful people and be willing to learn from them. Whatever areas you need to improve in take charge. Do what needs to be done such as, go to meetings, visit shows, read motivational books, and associate yourself with people good in the area you need to improve. Knowledge and action combined gives you success. Once you have learned what works for you then teach it to someone else who will apply the knowledge.
